Fraport - a Strong Partner for the Region

In terms of community relations and regional support, Fraport AG is active in a variety of fields; from supporting local school projects, sports teams, and art exhibitions to sponsoring large sports and art events in the region. Frankfurt airport is centrally located in the densely populated Rhein-Main region which has a population of more than 5 million. Due to the size and location of the airport, environmental protection and community relations rank high with Fraport AG.
