

AirITSystems Hannover GmbH

18.01.2008

Area of activity:

IT and telecommunication services

AirITSystems Hannover GmbH (AirIT) is a joint venture of Hanover and Frankfurt airports. AirIT is a system house, user and operator in one and offers extensive IT services and solutions in the areas of security, information and communication, business processes and SAP, as well as Collaboration Solutions.

AirITSystems Hannover GmbH supports airports and their service providers in all IT and telecommunication aspects. In addition, AirIT also offers its services to non-airport businesses. The focal points are in the following areas:

Security: Property, IT and organizational security

- Emergency management concepts
- Risk analyses
- Alarm and evacuation concepts
- CCTV monitoring
- Certification to ISO 27001
- Network security and firewall audits
- Access control systems using biometric processes
- Security for computer rooms
- Evacuation from premises with optical and acoustic effects

Information and Communication

- Data Networks
- Information systems
- Communication systems
- PC services
- Data center
- Training
- Traffic and building systems

Business processes and SAP

- Authorization and security concepts
- Business Warehouse
- Implementation / operation of SAP solutions by certified service organization
- Human resources
- Facility management
- Real estate
- Interfaces to operational systems

AWARO® Collaboration Solutions

- Solutions for Internet-based project management
- Project organization
- Document management
- Task monitoring
- Communication

Fraport holds a 50-percent share in the company.

Managing Directors:

Eric Engelhardt
Günther Gräf
Dr. Wolfgang Pelzer

Contact:

Tel.: +49 511 977-4000

Fax: +49 511 977-4100

E-Mail

www.airitsystems.de (<http://www.airitsystems.de>) (German)

Address:

Benkendorffstrasse 6
30855 Langenhagen

PO Box 420162
30661 Hanover