

Our benefits

The pay of our employees is based on collective agreements. Another component of pay is based on our own model (performance, success, recognition). Furthermore, our employees have access to further benefits which enable cost savings. Every year the employees can purchase stocks at special conditions through our employee participation program.

Benefits according to collective agreement

Company benefits

Special benefits

Deferred compensation

