

Graduates

As one of the worldwide leading airport operators Fraport AG is a top address for university graduates searching for their first job. You can get a head start in your career by joining our trainee program or accepting a position that is currently vacant.

Have you completed your studies in time and with above-average grades? Can you speak English, communicate well, work hard in a team? Then we are looking for you. We offer ideal work conditions for young people who want to get things moving and are mobile themselves.
