

Supervisory Board Corporation

Fraport is a joint-stock company. The members of the Supervisory board are representatives of the shareholders and the workforce. Business development and company strategy are under the watchful eye of the members of the Supervisory Board.

The twenty-member-strong Supervisory Board of Fraport AG is made up of

- three representatives from the federal state of Hesse,
- two from the City of Frankfurt,
- one from the Federal Republic of Germany,
- four private shareholders and
- ten employee representatives.

The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is the Minister of Finance of the State of Hesse.

Members of the Supervisory Board:

Chairman

Karlheinz Weimar

Secretary of Finance of the State of Hesse,
Member of the State of Hesse
Parliament

Dr. Manfred Bischoff

Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Daimler AG

Lothar Klemm

Former Hessian Government Minister, Attorney

Matthias von Randow

Undersecretary, German Federal Ministry of Transport, Construction and Urban Affairs

Wolfgang Mayrhuber

Chairman of the Executive Board of Deutsche Lufthansa AG

Christian Strenger

Member of various supervisory boards

Ismail Aydin

Member of the Works Council

Dr. h. c. Petra Roth

Lord Mayor of Frankfurt am Main

Edgar Stejskal

Chairman of the Group Works Council

Arno Prangenberg

Certified public accountant, tax counselor

