

The Fraport Executive Board's Declaration of Commitment to Values-based Compliance

Our reputation as a provider of high-quality airport services is a decisive competitive factor. The actions and behavior of each individual employee essentially contribute to this. Therefore, we must refrain from everything that could be detrimental to the company's reputation.

The basic values stipulated in the Code of Conduct and adherence thereto in our business dealings apply to all employees at all corporate levels.

To be successful, values-based compliance and company-wide integrity require the support of the top management. Fraport's executive board is fully committed to the principles of the Code of Conduct and the values associated with it.

Fraport AG's executive board as well as all Fraport employees are responsible for complying with and implementing the basic values stipulated in the Code of Conduct and the ensuing guidelines on value-based compliance.
